National Skate Patrol (NSP) is a volunteer service organization created in New York in 1992 in order to help roller skaters better interact with the larger public. NSP instructs inline skaters on basic technique, safety equipment, and etiquette. NSP was created in 1992 by members of the New York Road Skaters Association and the IISA (International Inline Skating Association). They quickly expanded and there are currently 16 NSP chapters around the world in the United States, Canada, and England.
