

Nationwide : Independence Day

Edited by Larrie Benton Zacharie

Nationwide: Independence Day is a compilation album presented by Too Short. The compilation was released on May 19, 1998 through Jive Records and Too Short's own Short Records. Most of the album was produced by Quinton Quint Black Banks, though familiar names Jazze Pha and Lil Jon also contributed production for the album. The two disc set contained original material recorded by established artists such as Redman and Casual, as well as songs performed by artists signed to Too Short's recently formed Short Records, such as Baby DC and Badwayz.
