An office where information concerning lodgings can be obtained will be opened at the Municipality of Genoa. OBITUARY. JOSEPH MARTIN. THE death of this enthusiastic explorer was announced on May 26, at Marghilan in Russo-Turkestan. Mr. Martin, who succumbed to an illness brought on by privation and fatigue, has added much of late years to our knowledge of Central Asia, having traversed Thibet and the country bordering the southern frontier of China. He was a somewhat wealthy man, and devoted the major part of his money to exploration. A Report of the death of Emin Pasha has been circulated, but so far, there is nothing to show that this is more than one of the rumours which all African travellers have to put up with. It has received the inevitable contradiction, which is probably as reliable as the original statement. OBSERVATIONS AND CORRESPONDENCE. Pre-glacial Man In Britain. In reference to our observations on this subject in the April number (supra, p. 85), Mr. W. J. Lewis Abbot writes a long letter, from which we extract the essential points: --What can the writer mean when he says the discussion of mans antiquity in Britain has, by common consent, been allowed to slumber for some years? Can he quote any seven years in which a greater store of information has been amassing in favour of mans antiquity than the last? The next sentence is ambiguous, namely, that the evidence was scarcely such as to command the respect of geologists, and joined to this is the assertion that it seemed also probable that before long facts would be discovered that would definitely settle the question. What are these facts? and upon what is their probable discovery based? The wr...
