

Natural Worlds

Rick Archbold, Illustrated by Robert Bateman

Stunning and thought-provoking, this beautiful collection of exclusive artwork from the artist's international travels celebrates the splendor and diversity of life on Earth. The paintings by celebrated wildlife artist Robert Bateman relate a deep admiration and love for nature. As these breathtaking images follow the artist on his journeys, he relays his thoughts on the different and important ecosystems of the world, offering the reader a personal glimpse into his work. These descriptions also narrate the influences these global trips have had on his work as an avid environmentalist.
