

Naturally Salty : Coastal Characters of the Pacific Northwest

Marianne Scott

During her time on the west coast, Marianne Scott has met a variety of fascinating people whose lives revolve around the sea - racing sailors, scientists, yacht designers, adventurers, boat builders, writers, painters, and eccentrics. Compelled to introduce these folk to a wider world, Marianne conducted interviews from Tacoma to Bella Bella to create this engaging collection of biographies. Readers will meet: Hermit Bob Stewart, who lives in a tiny floathome on Potts Lagoon Publisher Tom Kincaid, founder of Norwesting magazine Writer Charlie White of how-to fishing-book fame Shipwreck hunter James Delgado Hot-vent biologist Verena Tunnicliffe Orca specialist Paul Spong Mountaineer Jim Whittaker, the first American to scale Mount Everest before turning bluewater sailor Internationally renowned yacht designers Bob Perry and Ted Brewer Lighthouse-keeper Flo Anderson and Author Edith Iglauer. Ranging from 20-something adventurers to octogenarians still single-handing, the 31 people in this book are intriguing, honest, funny - and inspiring.
